Sometimes, you need a friend to vent to... I have helped people:

- Get back on track after a divorce
- Resolve serious conflicts
- Set goals /solve problems
- Overcome adversity

I can help you! Call (614) 457-3333 to schedule a session!

Do not stop yourself from doing what you want, being where you want to be, relating to the people you what to relate to...

Janna's powerful intellect helped me to identify my own paradigms and adjust those beliefs that were self-defeating.

Joan L., NY, NY, Columbus OH Life Coaching client

Janna's insights into human behavior and delightful sense of humor have provided me gentle guidance and practical solutions for those times when life's day-to-day problems have become 'too much.'

Janna Yeshanova, M.A., M.Ed., founder of Life-Spark, LLC is a dynamic and powerful life coach and trainer. Compared to the Energizer Bunny by one client, Janna leverages her passion and engaging style to help others spark the possibilities of their lives.

Originally from the former Soviet Union, Janna escaped to the United States when persecution became violent during the crumbling of the Soviet state. Arriving in the United States with her mother and daughter in tow, $126 in her pocket and knowing not a soul, Janna's talent and experiences have helped her become a premier trainer and personal coach.

While in her former country, Janna acquired her Master's Degree from Moldova State University and received a national award from the Minister of Professional Education in Moscow for outstanding work with her students. Upon arriving in the United States, she added a second Master's Degree in Applied Behavioral Science/Organizational Training and Development from Wright State University.

For many years Janna taught and trained Conflict Resolution at Antioch University, McGregor School in Yellow Springs OH. When she and her family moved to Columbus, Columbus State Community College invited her to train at the Center for Workforce Development. At the same time, she consulted for various national and international companies including Navistar International, NCR, Honda of America, Mfg., Standard Register, Lexis-Nexis and COSI. Her clients also include various government agencies and non-profit organizations.
